The 3rd edition of the National Conference on Youth in Social Change was organized by Manipal Academy of Higher Education on 17th September 2022 at Manipal on the occasion of 87th Birthday of Dr Ramdas M Pai, Honourable Chancellor of MAHE. The aim of the conference was to encourage the concept of giving among the youth and to sensitize them towards bringing a social change. Dr Ranjan R Pai, President, MAHE Trust, Chairman, Manipal Education and Medical Group launched the event through a cultural element of Tulunaadu, wherein the pingara flowers signify growth and prosperity.

Lt. Gen. Dr. M D Venkatesh in his welcome address mentioned that “We are a young country and youngsters like you are the change makers of societal problem. MAHE focuses on serving the community through volunteerism. It has a sustainable volunteering engagement and has evolved a system over the years for academic volunteering in higher educations in India. Through volunteering student gain opportunities to meaningfully engage in community service that benefits the community and also instill a sense of civic and social responsibility within them. MAHE’s student volunteering initiative is in line with the implementation of National Education Policy 2020.

Venkat Krishnan, Principal Trustee, India Welfare Trust delivered the keynote address on “Youth in Social Change:Volunteering as the change catalyst”. Reputed change-makers from the developmental sectors shared their experiences with 700 odd participants from different colleges of the country. While the speakers spoke on diverse topics like social change through inclusivity, nurturing empathy among school children through volunteering, building a global volunteer movement, the panel discussion was focussed on Innovating Enterprise: The India Way Forward.

“MAHE has been celebrating DaanUtsav - the Joy of Giving Week (Oct 2-8), India’s festival of giving, for the past 10 years as one of the means to encourage students to be a catalyst for social change. Our holistic approach to education helps the students to develop multiple skills and become a life long learner and a catalyst to lead to create sustainable change in the society mentioned Dr H S Ballal, Pro Chancellor, MAHE

In the Poster Competition, 30 student teams presented their ideas on diverse issues to promote constructive dialogue and societal change. The Manipal Seva Mela saw a participation from 20 NGOs like Teach for India, Goonj, Robin Hood Army, Bhumi, Darshan Education Foundation and local NGOs. The NGOs spoke about how they are making a change in the society, offered internship opportunities to students and also displayed their products and artisans.

The conference also witnessed 20 multidisciplinary student teams presenting their innovative solutions to societal problems identified by them during the 3 stage immersion process organized as part of Immersive hackathon for social change, a preconference event.

This conference and the hackathon will be of great benefit to the students community and will also be trademark experiment from MAHE to blend hackathon with volunteering activity. The event was jointly facilitated by Innovation Centre & Volunteer Services Organization of MAHE.
