MAHE's National Conference on Youth in Social Change: Empowering Youth for Global Impact

Manipal Academy of Higher Education (MAHE) organized National Conference on Youth in Social Change on September 16-17, 2023 at the picturesque MAHE Manipal campus. The event brought together more than 600 participants, including University students, dynamic young leaders, change-makers, and passionate advocates of social change from across the nation.

They congregated under the compelling theme, "Youth Catalysts for Global Impact: Unleashing the Power of SDGs." Notably, this conference was an integral part of the Youth 20 (Y20) event, representing the G20's dedicated youth engagement group and the 2 day conference is being planned in line to Y20's Subtheme: Youth in Community Governance specifically Kicking off the proceedings on September 16th, a capacity-building workshop on "Online fund raising using crowdfunding and effective use of local resources" was organized for NGOs and community-based clubs within the region. Simultaneously, the Manipal Seva Mela featuring 30 NGOs unveil a vibrant exhibition replete with offerings and opportunities presented by various organizations.

The conference commenced with the inauguration by Dr. Ranjan R Pai, President of MAHE Trust and Chairman of Manipal Education and Medical Group. We were honored to have Mr. Suresh Prabhu, Former Union Minister, grace the event as the Guest of Honor. He, in his address, passionately emphasized the significance of driving economic contributions at the grassroots level. He urged budding entrepreneurs to explore opportunities in tier 2 and 3 cities, echoing the visionary approach of TMA Pai in building the Manipal University campus on barren land in Manipal.

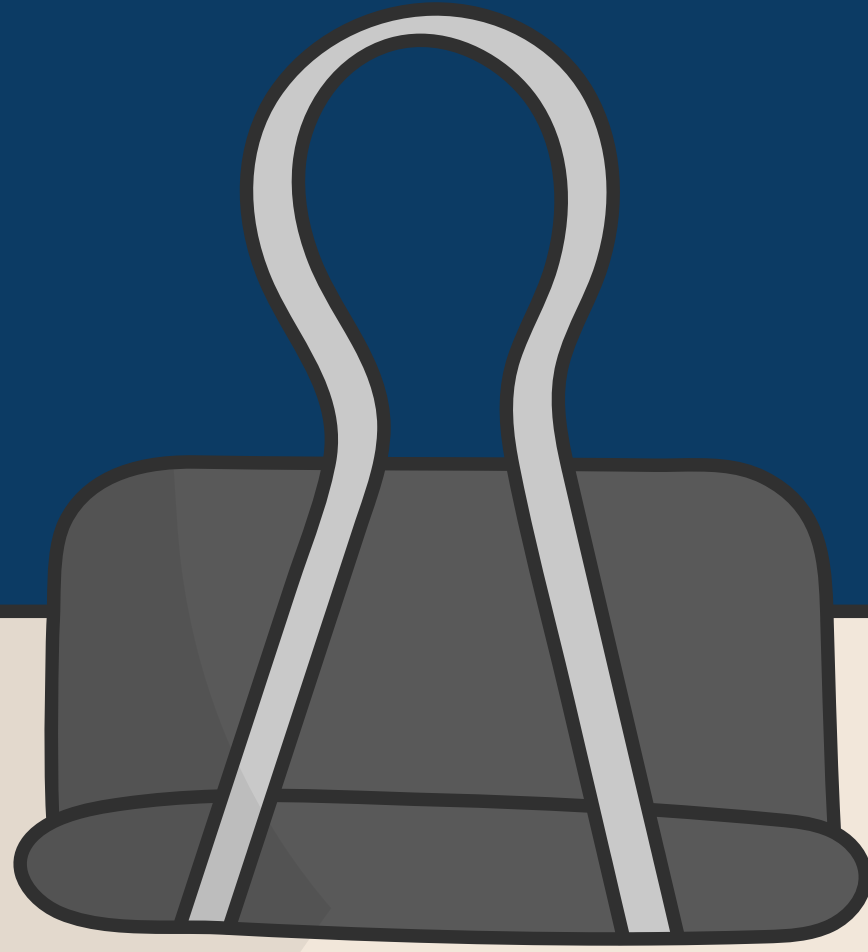

The conference featured a captivating keynote address by Mrs. Ashraf Patel from Pravah and ComMutiny - The Youth Collective. Plenary sessions included prominent speakers such as Mrs. Alina Alam from Mitti Café and Mrs. Anupama Muhuri from CRY - Child Rights and You. Their insights and perspectives left an indelible impact on all participants. 240 Student Delegates also presented 50 ideas for social change aligned to SDGs during the Poster presentation Competition.

Lt. Gen. (Dr.) M D Venkatesh, Vice-Chancellor of MAHE, Manipal, warmly welcomed the gathering and provided an overview of the conference. Dr. H S Ballal, Pro-Chancellor of MAHE, Manipal, presided over the event. The organizing secretary of the conference, Dr. Praveen Kumar, delivered the vote of thanks. Additionally, Dr. Anup Naha, Convenor, Mr. Abhishek Chaturvedi, Co-Convenor of the conference, student secretaries Ms. Pallavi Kamath, and Mr. Naveen were present.
